

project, a new census of the marine molluscan fauna of Tasmania, and continued with this until his final few weeks.

The snail world, and also field naturalists everywhere, have lost a great mentor, but his memory will live on through his large output of publications and the many friends he made during his time among us.

Thank you from the Editors

The Victorian Naturalist would not be successful without the enormous amount of time and effort given voluntarily by a large number of people who work behind the scenes.

One of the most important editorial tasks is to have papers refereed. The Editors would like to say thank you to the following people who refereed manuscripts published during 2006:

Graham Ambrose
David Beardsell
Karen Beckman
Ashley Bunce
Malcolm Calder
David Cameron
Chantal Carrigan
David Cheal
Nick Cleemann
